

Flamenco and Latin Dance Workshops

Now available for Schools, Universities,
Weddings, Birthday parties and other events!

Erica Dominguez was born in Caracas, Venezuela. At an early age, she began studying classical ballet, jazz and tap at the Academy of Siudy Quintero. She has been a Flamenco instructor and performer since arriving in Indianapolis in 1996. Erica also leads her own dance group, FlamencÓle. Erica's classes and performances combine a passion and love of flamenco with Latin dance styles and rhythms. Erica's warm personality endears her to her students of all ages. Erica and her students have performed at various events including The Peggy Dorsey Concert at Clowes Hall, Fiesta Indianapolis, Children's Museum of Indianapolis, JCC Theatre, Vincennes University, Rose Hulman Institute of Technology, Indiana Roof Ballroom, and various central Indiana schools. Erica is also an accredited Zumba instructor and currently teaches at Jordan Academy of Dance at Butler University and The Russian Ballet Academy of Indiana.

No dance experience required for this workshop and no special attire needed. In this workshop the students will learn the basic steps for Flamenco and, Latin dances.

The students will receive a brief introduction to the Flamenco history, be exposed to a Multicultural environment, learn words and phrases in Spanish and, listen to music and rhythms from different regions in Spain and Latin America. During the workshop, the instructor will demonstrate the basic steps and provide the students with the right techniques to reproduce them.
